THEME:
Fathers of Numismatics

IMPORTANT MESSAGE

Our next meeting is Wednesday, June 6th, 2018 AT 7 P.M.* (DOORS OPEN 6 P.M.!) Judy Blackman will present "Fathers of Numismatics". Following this presentation will be a special draw from our Paid Up Members Bucket, so if you have yet to join or renew, be sure to do so before this presentation or you will miss out on a chance to win a bag of goodies (both numismatic and non-numismatic) valued at least at $50. Right after this draw is our pizza and dessert, followed by our other draws and then our auction. Remember to contact Scott Douglas a week before the meeting if you have a dietary restriction (wheat-free, dairy-free, vegan) so he can arrange accommodations with our pizza supplier. As well, we will confirm our July 1, 2018-June 30, 2021 (3 yrs) Executive. Thank you to Peter Becker and Ernie Blair for joining our SWCS leadership team. Mike Hollingshead will be out of the country during this meeting, so we need a volunteer to look after making the coffee. Bring a friend, introduce your friend to the ONA Club of the Year!

We were pleased at our May meeting to welcome new member Atiq Khokhar. Who wouldn't want to belong to the Club of the Year! Learn more inside this issue. We have a nice line-up for presenters for the balance of 2018: July—our good friend Ron Cheek is returning (Nicaragua Coinage); Aug.- Peter Becker (CCCC); Sept.—Norm Belsten (Canada 150), Oct. Conservator, Patty Whan from the Wellington County Museum and Archives; Nov.—Dave Mowat from the Guelph Historical Society speaking On the Klondike Gold Rush (which includes significant roles his family played), and Dec. — Robb McPherson (Casino) and also a rep from the Food Bank. [* signifies SWCS member]

Be sure check out <https://www.rcna.ca/2018/index.php> for details of the RCNA 2018 Convention in Mississauga (note there is an early July deadline when you must have booked your hotel room before, in order to get the special convention rate). Once again Scott Douglas has put together a fantastic symposium. There are 8 educational speakers (in order of presentation times: Ron Cheek, Alan Roy, Angus Sutherland, Jim Charlton Jr., Geoffrey Bell, Rob Turner, Michael Rogozinski, and Ian Speers). There are also 3 tours to be pre-booked when you register. These include: Day trip to Kleinburg; Afternoon visit and tour of Artcast; and Evening cruise, with dinner, on Lake Ontario.

Bring along a friend or two to our next SWCS meeting, enjoy free refreshments and smiles, share the FUN and LAUGHTER with the ONA Club of the Year!

Club Report & News reported by Mike Hollingshead and photos by Judy Blackman

Our May meeting 32 members, plus 3 guests but those guests became members before the night was over. Great attendance! Folks had a sunny drive to the meeting, after days of unpleasant weather (the rain was quick to return after the meeting).

Draws: Thank you John & Robin Semedo for selling the tickets.

Ohh too bad you left the meeting so early Andrew Strachan as your name was drawn again, you could have put $10 in your pocket. We tried a second Members Attendance drawing and this time it was Tino Schito who also was not present, so June's draw will be for $15.

The King Arthurs Treasure draw for the equivalent of 95 items was won by Lisa McPherson. Way to go Lisa and to all SWCS who participated. Don't forget to bring out 5 former treasures or buyers remorse items you'd like to shed and find a new home for. Every 5 items or Loonie gets you a ticket for the draw.

Our Daytona Draw was won by ticket-holder Judy Blackman who generously passed her ticket on to Peter Horne-Deus (who just got his driver's licence). He picked envelope #28 out of the spread from 27-31. Bidding rose quickly to $25 by Mel Brown. Peter decided to opt for the envelope contents which freed up Mel's money for the auction. Peter's envelope contained a 1998 Winnipeg PL and a 1996 PL set retailing for a combined total of $49. Looks like a win / win for everybody on that one. Daytona tickets are just $2 each!

Tickets were then drawn for a number of other prizes won by SWCS's Club Delegate Mike Hollingshead at the recent ONA convention. They included two cases for holding RCM collector coins (won by Robin Semedo who immediately said her husband John won in place of her), commemorative quarters (won by Mel Brown), and a bag of assorted woods (won by Pieter Louis).

Educational Program:

Thank you to John Semedo for looking after our multi-media needs, and especially for getting the sound to work for the 4 thrilling videos in Judy's presentation. Lisa McPherson says it brought back fond memories from her years owning and operating a body shop which benefitted from clients off the dragster tracks.

Scott Douglas opened with a review of the 2017 Treasurer's Report, current Membership List, and highlights of his trip to the Central States Numismatic Society's 79th Anniversary Convention (4-days) held in Schaumburg (close proximity to Chicago), Illinois, April 25-28, 2018. On Sat., Apr. 28 at 11:30 a.m., Scott was the facilitator for Heritage Numismatic Education Forum Session V, with his topic "St. Eligius: The Patron Saint of Numismatics." The next three Anniversary Conventions will also be held in Schaumburg: 80th-Apr. 24-27, 2019; 81st Apr. 22-25, 2020; and 82nd-Apr. 21-24, 2021.

Next up, was Mike Hollingshead, SWCS Club Delegate for the recent ONA Annual Convention, updated on the experience with particular details of the Club's Delegate Breakfast, Educational Symposium, AGM, Banquet, Awards and John Powers' "Butterflies and Numismatics" exhibit. Robb McPherson has given John a challenge to add Casino tokens with butterflies on them to his exhibit. Judy Blackman emailed Kirk Parsons at CAC with wood images of butterflies that may interest John. Mike recognized there was no Cuban exhibit so arranged with John for Mike to take a stamped-envelope to the post office in Cuba and have it hand-cancelled, and he'll assist John to select the best notes and coins for an exhibit. John was adding and changing exhibits on the fly at the convention as he became aware of other numismatic items. At the SWCS spring show, there was at John Burrell (Halton Coins) booth, a set of uncirculated coloured Cuban coins which included a beautiful butterfly coin.

The obvious highlight was SWCS winning the ONA Club of the Year award for the 2017 year. Mike explained the criteria met to support the judging panel's decision. The ONA for 2017 year which is the subject of the COTY award had 39 club members, 3 association members and 5 affiliated member groups, and then individual memberships over and above these. The ONA received 6 submissions for consideration for the COTY award. It's important to know, the President of the ONA is not involved in the review or judging of these submissions, and should a club submit where any member of the judging committee served on the submitting club's executive, that person is expected to recuse himself / herself from the judging. The reason SWCS won, as Mike explained, it due to the wonderful SWCS membership! The club met all the criteria and in many ways surpassed it. The club received an individual plaque with a mounted medal plus a cheque, and there is a large plaque the ONA maintains with a plate for each year's award recipient.

South Wellington Coin Club founded 1997

Club Report & News reported by Mike Hollingshead and photos by Judy Blackman

The judges review:

Participating events for the membership, numismatic hobby, and community held during the year (shows, meetings, educational days, banquets, speaking circuit, radio and television shows, on-line blogging and other social media, etc.).

Educational policy (efforts to share knowledge and promote the hobby—speakers circuit, published articles / books, websites, library, exhibits, accessibility of resources).

Harmonization with members, dealers, and collectors (partnering to promote the hobby, build event attendance, sharing resources, willingness of club members to volunteer).

Originality and Initiatives: being different, unique, special draws and games, issuing medals / woods / stamps / other club branded items and hobby promo materials, leading in approaches to the hobby, etc.

Vision and Communication: newsletters (how frequent, quality of content, how many contributors, how much visuals), websites, flyers, public media, advertising, executive meetings, membership meetings, shows, educational events, building inclusive family spirit and fun within the club and the hobby), transparency and stability (financial and membership), etc.

Giving Back / Paying It Forward: reinvesting the funds raised by the membership to keep the membership dues low, to keep club resources current, to grow the hobby and knowledge of numismatics, and to help the community (donations monetary and material to both numismatic and non-numismatic groups), members participating at other clubs and shows, members sitting on executives for other clubs / provincial or regional / national / and/ or international numismatic organizations, etc.

Mike Hollingshead reviewed the previous weekend's SWCS Spring Show feedback from dealers and attendees. The show prep starts long before the show whether it be booking facility, signing up dealers, issuing flyers and looking after advertising and other media, updating websites, preparing admission tools, ordering publications, and more, then the day of setup which starts 3-4 hours before the show opens (if not the night before), security and attending to other needs during the show, photographing the event, and tear-down, helping dealers as much as possible.

Due to late booking by a Guelph charity group raising funds for the Sacred Heart Parish, SWCS had to perform set up for the show at 5 a.m. Saturday (the day of the show). Mike Hollingshead and Dwayne Spears assisted the Legion volunteers with tables and ensured that the layout was correct. Dealers began to arrive at 6 a.m. with Dan Jones leading the pack. Mike wished to express sincere thanks to club members attending and spending much of the day at the Admission Desk, Kids' Table, Dealer Moving-In and Moving-Out, Photography, and Floor Security were: Robin & John Semedo who were assisted by their granddaughter Mai Luu, Sean Sinclair, Peter Becker, Garry George, Mel Brown, Judy Blackman, Charles Turton, Lowell Wierstra, Martin Hoffmann, Dwayne Spears, and Doug Wilson. A big thank you to all who helped out, that dedication to volunteering for club events is what makes us the ONA Club of the Year!

Be sure to read inside this newsletter about John Semedo and a bank note from our Spring Coin Show, courtesy of Mike Hollingshead and Peter Becker ensuring your Editor was aware!

Robb McPherson brought along 9 copper ONA 52nd Convention medals from 2014 which was hosted by the Windsor Coin Club, and featured the Ford Model C 1904, Canada's First Production Car. These were offered at a special discount of $5 off the regular price, for this meeting only and quickly sold out. As well Robb had a few copper and silver medals from this year's convention, noting the brass sold out fast. Robb explained the details (so far available) for the 2019 convention in Kingston. He brought extra 2018 convention booklets (which contained an original article "Frederick Bowman, Kitchener's Native Son" by Scott Douglas, only published there), and some other "help-yourself" stuff.

The ONA Banquet was well-attended, and nearly every person present won a prize (for example at our table 7 of 8 won). Robb brought Mike his prize from the event, which was the Grand Prize of the night, a weekend stay at Holiday Inn &

Club Report & News reported by Mike Hollingshead and photos by Judy Blackman

Conference Centre. A couple of other large prizes included a case of $84 worth (in FV) of higher grade toonies. This was won by Jim Charlton who in turn gave it to 9-year old Samuel, who also received a couple other donations from banquet attendees such as a highly-collectible bank note. Another prize (won by Chris Boyer) was 5 silver Canadian coins, from a series released by the Royal Canadian Mint (RCM) at a price of $65 each (total $325 for combined). Chris thought it had to be a mistake and inquired to ensure this was one prize and not five, and that four more names should surely be drawn. Needless to say, he went home very happy! There are not draw tickets sold, just by coming to the banquet, you are automatically eligible to win a prize.

Next Andrew Strachan led an very lively discussion on the grading and regrading by three of the leading certification companies, from an individual submitting to a business or auction house submitting, and Scott Douglas shared some interesting information on what can influence the grading result.

Judy Blackman spoke on the history, evolution and numismatic connections to the Ford Motor Company of Australia, and its connection to Ford Canada. Judy illustrated her talk with a good number of photos and videos, and also included an image of a Ford medallion issued to a Paul Johnson, which was in the collection of another Paul Johnson (RCNA Executive Secretary) who sent it to her to include in her presentation. Who knew that Judy is actually a "closet Rod Head"? I asked her husband Aubyn if they had plans to spend a lot of time at Cayuga—Jukasa Motor Speedway, Hagersville, this summer.

(2018 Race Schedule at this link:
<https://www.jukasamotorspeedway.com/news/archive/544/>)

The Ford Company in Australia became a "Rise and Fall" story, likely due to the proximity of Asian imports. Thank you Judy for your usual great and off-the-wall talk. Keep the pedal to the "medal"...

Refreshments:

As always, thank you to Mel Brown for the yummy cookies and pop, water, and Mike Hollingshead for making the coffee. We also had Mike donate a bag of oatmeal cookies and Judy Blackman bring cashew and pistachio cookies and salami whips. Whoever you are, thanks very much.

Auction:

Thank you to our auctioneer Mike Hollingshead, runners Martin Hoffmann and Peter Becker, and to Lowell Wierstra for putting together the auction lots. Lowell welcomes your consignments, and remember we keep our consignment fees very low, if not the lowest in Ontario. The SWCS commission charged to consignors: Sold for under $20, auction fee is 25 cents and items sold for over $20 fee is $1. Pretty simple. No buyers premium, no sales tax. We are now accepting consignments for our August-December auctions. See the last two pages of this newsletter for both the June and July auction sheets.

Coming to Rockwood in fall 2018:

Conservator, Patty Whan from the Wellington County Museum and Archives (WCMA) will be visiting us for our October 2018 meeting. Established in 1976 - the year after the museum moved to the former home for the aged in Aboyne - the Wellington Archives collection began in what's now curatorial office space in the Wellington County Museum, moving in 1982 to the basement of Aboyne Hall. Officially named the Wellington County Museum and Archives in 1984, the archives section was moved out to the St. Andrew West Plaza in Fergus during museum renovations and was relocated to the top floor of the museum in 1987, where it's been ever since. Approved after months of discussions in county council, the project was approved in 2009, and received federal-provincial infrastructure funding that split the cost three ways - plus a grant for special archives shelving. Work started in June 2009 with the demolition of the 1950s-era Wellington Place wing that had been the home of the Ontario Ministry of Agriculture, Food and Rural Affairs. Archivist Karen Wagner and conservator Patty Whan are dedicated professionals who aim high and provide best practices in all they undertake. These two are role models for all county employees. The Wellington Advertiser, April 28, 2017, Photo Bill Longshaw: The Wellington County Museum in Aboyne (between Elora and Fergus), opened its new ARTEFACTS exhibit on April 23. Elizabeth Litch and others offer this exhibit, which shows the works of Connections Fibre Artists using more than 40 artifacts from the museum as the inspiration for their artwork. (...) Standing in front of one of Litch's works titled The Maple Leaf Forever are, from left, Museum Technician Phil Dietrich, Amy Dunlop, Elizabeth Litch, new Museum Curator Sandu Sindile and Museum Conservator Patty Whan.

Joining us for our Nov. meeting will be Dave Mowat. Some may have seen his presentation as part of the Evenings with History 2017-2018 Lecture Series put on by the Guelph Historical Society. Dave is will be giving his presentation he gave at St. Andrew's Church on Dec. 5, 2017, titled "The Klondike Gold Rush 1892: A Canadian Story with Local Connections." Dave shared with your Editor, "I would be delighted to speak on the Klondike Gold Rush at your meeting on Wed. Nov. 7. My great uncle played a significant role in this historic event (first mayor in the Yukon) and a great uncle of a former colleague and family friend played a major role- William Ogilvie, second governor of the Yukon. I wrote a family memoir with extended family inputs on our great uncle's involvement. While very bright and capable (gold medal from Queens) and a pharmacist, he stayed too long, 11 years, in a declining and rough environment in the Klondike, and became a tragedy for his staunch upright family." The discovery of gold in the Yukon in 1896 led to a stampede to the Klondike region between 1897 and 1899. This led to the establishment of Dawson City (1896) and subsequently, the Yukon Territory (1898).

Dave also assisted in the history of the Guelph Men's Club, A Tribute to Our RAF Blenheim Crew (along with John Ogilvie, Gloucester Historical Society), the history of some buildings (some of his research is in the Wellington County Museum & Archives, and much more. Dave is also the Community Consultation Specialist for the Mississauga of Scugog Island First Nation and have spoken before the Oshawa Historical Society.

Your remaining 2018 meetings:

June—Fathers of Numismatics: Judy Blackman

July—Nicaragua Coinage: Ron Cheek

August—CCCC: Peter Becker

September: Canada 150: Norm Belsten

October—WCMA: Patty Whan

November—Klondike Gold Rush: Dave Mowat

December—Casino World: Robb McPherson

Financials:

Scott Douglas presented the club's annual Treasurer's Report for our 2017 year, as well as a Membership List which will be updated and present at every meeting, so folks will know their status. Remember, when you renew, you are welcome to pay for more than 1 year if you wish.

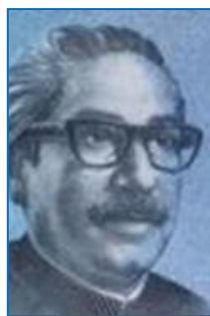

2018 RCNA Convention News

The 2018 RCNA Convention is August 7-11 at the Hilton Mississauga / Meadowvale, 6750 Mississauga Rd., Mississauga, and is hosted by the North York Coin Club. For full details visit this link: www.rcna.ca/2018. Note there is deadline for booking your hotel overnight accommodations if you want to receive the special convention hotel rate, so act now!

There are also a few special tours planned, another amazing 2-day educational symposium, a 3-day auction, and much more. RCNA members can assign to the auction without being charged consignment fees.

John's Secret Identity

Bangladesh Bank has issued a new series of banknotes, phasing out the older designs for new, more secure ones. All banknotes other than the 1 taka feature a portrait of Sheikh Mujibur Rahman on the obverse along with the watermark of the National Martyrs' Memorial.

Rarely used banknotes of the Bangladeshi taka are ট1 (withdrawn as well since 1992), ট25, ট40 and ট60, and the most frequently used banknotes in circulation are ট2, ট5, ট10, ট20, ট50, ট100, ট500 and ট1000.

Bangladesh Bank has withdrawn the new ট50 note after a spelling mistake of Shilpacharya Zainul Abedin (জয়নুল আবেদীন) which was identified on the back of the note. The note had just been introduced on 7 March, so it is likely that very few made it into circulation, even though 22.5 million pieces were printed.

South Wellington Coin Club founded 1997

In 2000, the government issued polymer ট10 notes as an experiment (similar to the Australian dollar). They proved unpopular, however, and were withdrawn later. At present, the ট1 and ট5 notes are gradually being replaced with coins, and in 2008, the government issued ট1,000 notes.

In 2011, Bangladesh Bank began issuing a new series of banknotes denominated in ট2, ট5, ট100, ট500, and ট1000. All are dated 2011 and feature a portrait and watermark of the Father of the Nation, Bangabandhu Sheikh Mujibur Rahman, along the National Martyr's Monument in Savar at centre front. From 2011, the Bangladesh Bank introduced new notes denominated in ট10, ট20, and ট50 on 7 March 2012. The notes bear the portrait of Bangabandhu Sheikh Mujibur Rahman and the National Martyr's Monument in Savar on the front. On the back of the notes, the ট10 will picture the Baitul Mukarram mosque, the ট20 pictures the Shat Gombuj mosque in Bagherat, and the ট50 notes feature Shilpacharya Jainul Abedin's famous painting "Ploughing." In 2011, Bangladesh Bank also introduced a ট40 note to commemorate the "40th Victory Anniversary of Bangladesh". The commemorative note features a portrait of the Father of the Nation, Bangabandhu Sheikh Mujibur Rahman and the National Martyr's Monument in Savar on front, and six armed men on back. Curiously, this note has an electrotape 10 in the watermark, indicating it was likely printed on extra ট10 banknote paper.

On 15 February 2012, Bangladesh Bank has introduced a ট60 note to commemorate "60 years of National Movement". The commemorative note measures 130 by 60 millimetres (5.1 in × 2.4 in) and features the Shaheed Minar (Martyrs' monument) in Dhaka and five men on the back. Like the ট40 commemorative note, this note has an electrotape 50 in the watermark. It was likely printed on extra ট50 banknote paper. On 26 January 2013, Bangladesh Bank issued a ট25 note to commemorate the 25th anniversary (silver jubilee) of the Security Printing Corporation (Bangladesh) Ltd. On the front is the National Martyr's Monument in Savar, the designs of the previous series of the Bangladeshi taka notes and its postage stamps, three spotted deer and the magpie robin (doyel) bird. On the reverse is the headquarters of the Security Printing Corporation. Curiously, this note has an electrotape 10 in the watermark, indicating it was likely printed on extra ট10 banknote paper. On 8 July 2013, Bangladesh Bank issued a ট100 note to commemorate the 100th anniversary of the Bangladesh National Museum. The commemorative note features an 18th-century terra-cotta plaque of a horseman on the front and the Bangladesh National Museum on the back. 100 BDT (Bangladesh Taka) = 1.54559 CAD (Canadian Dollar). In the last 90 days, this has fluctuated in the range of 1.473 to 1.556.

Dealer Prizes

Our SWCS Spring Coin Show resulted in these two dealers being presented our Dealer Appreciation Prizes by Mike Hollingshead at the end of our show: Halton Coin's John Burrell was presented with a black box of 25 Cohiba Maduro #5 and a bottle of Havana Club Anejo Especial rum. Richard Whitelaw of Academy Collectables was presented with a bundle of 25 Selectos brand Cuban cigars.

More ONA Awards

Two of our SWCS members received awards at the ONA: Robb McPherson received the ONA's highest honor, the Award of Merit and also an ONA President's Award. A truly well-deserved recognition!

Judy Blackman received an ONA President's Award (Editor, The Ontario Numismatist), and also two exhibit awards (2nd and 3rd place). This photo is courtesy of Henry Nienhuis.

Congratulations to both, we are proud to be the COTY and also to have individual members recognized.

South Wellington Coin Society may be one of the smaller clubs, but it is truly, a GREAT club!

Jardin Guilbault (DYK #098)

Did You Know.....that a token originally destined to be used for admission to a Montreal botanical garden wasn't struck until nine years after the gardens cease to exist?

In 1889 Dr. Joseph LeRoux visited Birmingham, England and the establishment of medallist Joseph Moore. During this visit LeRoux was shown a trial piece that had been made for Jardin Guilbault of Montreal. The tokens had been ordered by Guilbault to be used as admission to his botanical gardens but the token showed an admission price of 30 sous (15 cents) when the admission price was in fact 15 sous (7 ½ cents). Upon learning that the dies were still intact LeRoux, thinking he could sell them to collectors in Montreal, ordered 500 to be struck in copper. The dies apparently broke after only 98 tokens had been struck.

Joseph-Edouard Guilbault (1802-1882) was an orphan by the time he was eleven having lost his father in 1807 and his mother in 1814. Guilbault attended Petit Séminaire Of Montreal later to be known as the College of Montreal from 1814 to 1816 learning to be a commercial trader and moved to Quebec City in 1820 to set up as a merchant. Guilbault returned to Montreal in 1824 as a merchant but later set up shop as a florist and botanist in 1831. It was around this time (1832) that Jardin Guilbault began its existence as The Botanic Garden of J. Guilbault located north of Sherbrooke Street and east of St. Denis near the Bishops Church. In 1850 the garden was moved to Cote Street and in 1850 moved to Cote des Neige the name being changed to The Botanic and Commercial Gardens. In 1852 another move to Sherbrooke and Bleury Streets with the name changed to The Botanic and Zoological Gardens and Aviary would be home for the next ten years. In 1862 this ever-growing venture moved to a site between St. Lawrence and St Hubert streets. Advertisements of the day talked of one of the largest collections in America of living wild animals, rare birds and plants as well as a gymnasium, a museum and a building large enough for skating and concerts. One ad even boasted of A Living Whale.

In 1870 Guilbault sold this property and moved his menagerie to his place at Sault au Recollet operating under the name of Guilbault's Acclimatization Garden.

Over the next ten years Guilbault gradually sold all of his exhibits and Jardin Guilbault closed its doors for good in 1880.
